PATROL SERVICES INTERNATIONAL STARTS OPERATIONS IN AUSTIN, TX

September 29, 2015, BEND — Patrol Services International (PSI) announced today the launch of its newest company-owned operation in Austin, Texas. To manage their new Austin office, PSI has hired as Security Director veteran police officer Jim Wakefield, who brings with him over 20 years of experience as a member of the the Los Angeles Police Department.

“PSI will bring to the Austin market what we are best known for: providing our clients with premiere private security services that exceed all expectations” said Nick Thompson, chief executive officer and founder, Patrol Services International. “We look forward to developing great new relationships with the business, government and local communities of Austin.” Thompson emphasized his company’s industry-leading cloud-based officer incident reporting system, which allows clients to view and track their patrols and get real-time reporting of incidents right from the scene.

In addition to its company-owned locations, Patrol Services International operates single and multi-unit regional franchises in 5 states. Their business model delivers targeted, high-visibility patrol and a variety of community-oriented security services for residential, business, industrial, municipal, institutional and specialized client environments.

PSI’s initial offerings in the Austin area will focus on homeowner associations, multi-unit residential interests, governments contracts and retail clients. PSI currently operates in Atlanta, GA, Columbus, OH, Bend, OR, Orlando, FL, and Washington, D.C.
